

Human Resources Manager

ABOUT THE HENRY

The Henry Art Gallery was founded as Washington State's first art museum in 1926, on the principle that art stimulates inquiry, fosters knowledge, and builds healthy communities. Located on the campus of the University of Washington (UW), Seattle, the Henry is internationally recognized as a pioneer in the research and presentation of contemporary art. Learn about our mission and vision: henryart.org/about.

POSITION PURPOSE

The Human Resources Manager oversees the HR program for all Henry employees, including Henry Gallery Association (HGA) non-profit staff and Henry Art Gallery University of Washington Professional staff. This position has an important role in helping set tone, culture, and service levels at the museum. The HR Manager provides guidance, coaching, and support for staff members. This position acts as a resource and liaison to employees to effectively resolve human resource related issues and ensure positive employee relations. This position also ensures that all employee relations, recruiting programs, employment processes, and insurance and retirement programs follow established procedures and remain in compliance with applicable laws. The HR Manager serves as a member of the museum's Leadership Team, whose role involves developing policies, procedures and plans to support the museum's strategic plan and commitment to equity.

COMMITMENT TO EQUITY

The Henry acknowledges the historical structures and social dynamics that have continuously oppressed communities of color and we acknowledge our part in institutional racism. We also acknowledge that we are situated on the land of the Coast Salish peoples.

We are actively committed to racial equity and to building a strong foundation of inclusivity and awareness in all we do. We value discourse that brings forward voices and positions that have been – and continue to be – oppressed. We do not tolerate hate speech or actions.

We recognize that we are in the process of embodying these values across our exhibitions, programs, and operations; this is our ongoing work.

The Henry Art Gallery is a part of the University of Washington. For more information about race and equity at the UW, see u.washington.edu/raceequity.
